PLAIN TWP. — The Lube Stop, Ohio's largest independently owned quick oil change company, has entered the Canton market with the opening of a new store at 3106 Whipple Ave. NW.

Prior to today's announcement, Lube Stop operated solely in the Cleveland and Akron markets.

The new Canton location is the company's first store opening in five years.

"Many Northeast Ohio businesses, including Lube Stop, are facing challenges created by the current economic downturn," Tom Morley, president of Lube Stop, said in a news release.

"But today's economic environment also presents opportunities. Lube Stop is fortunate to be in a position that enables us to pursue favorable lease deals and acquisition opportunities currently valued at discounted rates."
