

THE PLAIN DEALER

The Notebook

Monday, April 02, 2007

News about area businesses, including awards, grants, office or store openings, and relocations.

Honors

DiversityInc magazine ranked KeyBank 31st overall on its list of this year's top 50 companies for diversity. No other Northeast Ohio-based companies made the list.

William Ross of Calfee Halter and Griswold LLP in Cleveland was inducted as a fellow of the American Bar Association's College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers.

Opening

Dollar Tree Stores Inc. has opened a store in Century Plaza, 2249 Kresge Dr., Amherst.

Relocations

Priority Dispatch Inc. has moved its Cleveland branch to 14548 Neo Parkway. 216-332-9852.

Cleveland-based Copy King has moved to 3333 Chester Ave. 216-861-3377.

Acquisition

Consolidated Graphics Group Inc. of Cleveland has bought the assets of Graphic Service Die Cutting & Binder Inc.

Name change

Vantage Financial Credit Union has changed its name to Reward One Credit Union. The Brook Park-based credit union's main phone number remains 216-367-8000.

Philanthropy

The Children's Miracle Network Programs has recognized Re/Max Crossroads real estate offices for contributing more money to Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital than any other Re/Max company in central and northern Ohio.

Berea-based Lube Stop Inc. and customers at its 37 locations in Northeast Ohio raised $28,264 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association's fund drive. The money will send 37 children to Camp Cheerful in Strongsville for a week.

Send items to Notebook, 1801 Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44114. Or e-mail bizlists@plaind.com. Include "Notebook" in the subject line.

© 2007 The Plain Dealer

© 2007 cleveland.com All Rights Reserved.